

Thank you for attending the 39th annual Conservation Field Day. The Swain Soil and Water Conservation District (formerly known as the Tuckaseigee SWCD) created this day for students to expand their knowledge of natural resources, environment, and their place in it.

This day would not be possible without the participation of Swain teachers and the presenters who dedicate their time to students year after year.

Welcome to the 2013
Conservation Field Day
Deep Creek
Picnic Area

Sponsored by

Schedule

9:15—9:35	Station	1
9:40—10:00	Station	2
10:05—10:25	Station	3
10:30—10:50	Station	4
10:55—11:40	~ LUNCH ~
11:45—12:05	Station	5
12:10—12:30	Station	6
12:35—12:55	Station	7
1:00—1:20	Station	8
1:25—1:45	Station	9

Air Quality

Keith Bamberger, Division of Air Quality

Arbor Day-Adopt a Tree

Rob Hawk, N.C. Cooperative Extension

ATV Safety

Nira Franklin, N.C. Cooperative Extension

Aquatics

Gary Smith, Professor Emeritus W.C.U.

Bears

Tanya Poole, NC Wildlife Resources Comm.

Birds of Prey

Blair Ogburn, Balsam Mountain Trust

Elk

Julie Townsend, National Park Service

Fire Safety

Benji Reece, N.C. Forest Service

Soils

William Miller, Div. of Soil & Water Conservation